o'clock tonight at the organization's hall, 319½ South Second street. Candidates will be initiated.

Mr. O. Strong and children left yesterday for Los Angeles and other southern California cities and resorts.
They will be absent the rest of summer. Mr. Strong will join them later in the summer.

Carlo, a government farmer and his wife, Marshal Robert Butt, He will be arraigned before United States Commissioner George B. Craig this morning, charged with assault with a deadly weapon. Then the time of his hearing before the commissioner will be fixed.

If Jose had watchfully waited he would have been arrested, anyhow.
He was accused of introducing Honor on the Isleta reservation, say Indian officials, and it was on this charge that the Indian policeman attempted to arrest him. Jose was said to have threatened the policeman and the officer went for assistance. It was then that Jose jumped onto his pony and clattered away.

Carlo is not charged with committing assault with a deadly weapon by the government. J. T. Marshall, government farmer and deputy special officer at Isleta, is affidavit in the complaint in Commissioner Craig's court. The Indian boy two shots at Marshall, it was said. He had dismounted and was struggling with another Indian, which may account for the fact that both of his shots missed the government farmer.

Warden McManus Prepares to Send Seven Villistas to Deming to Pay Penalty for Murders at Columbus.

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO MORNING JOURNAL
Santa Fe, June 6.—Warden J. H.
McManus is preparing to send the seven Villistas to be hanged at Deming on Friday evening, from the penitentiary at Woodbury evening, and so far has received no intimation that there will be any further reprieve or other executive interference with the carrying out of the sentence.

Governor McDonald is at his ranch in Carrizozo and has received no further word from Washington in the matter since he left Santa Fe. Attorney E. C. Wade, Jr., who was to Washington to have the department of state take up the matter, has returned to El Paso and reports that he had an interview with Assistant Secretary of State Osborne and has the promise that both the department of state and President Wilson will go into the matter thoroughly.

The belief is current here that Governor McDonald will at the last minute commute to life imprisonment the sentences of several if not all of the condemned men.

MEXICANS TO PASS THROUGH CITY TONIGHT ON LAST TRIP

Sheriff Simpson, of Luna county, will pass through Albuquerque this morning on the way to Santa Fe to receive the Mexicans, who are to be hanged at Deming, from Warden J.
H. McManus, of the state penitentiary.

Sheriff Simpson will start from Santa Fe with the men this afternoon, arriving here tonight on Santa Fe train No. 1, Special Agent G. H.
Thomas, of the Santa Fe railway service, and Special Agent Frank Hill, also of the railway service, will meet Sheriff Simpson here and go to Santa Fe with him to act as guards on the return trip.

P. T. LONERGAN WILL SPEAK TONIGHT BEFORE
THE BAR ASSOCIATION

At the monthly meeting of the Bernalillo County Bar association, to be held tonight at the Commercial club, Superintendent Philip T. Lonergan, of the United States Indian service of the Pueblo agency, will address the members of the profession on "The Legal Status of the Indian in New Mexico."
The subject is one of intense interest legally. Mr. Lonergan, both from his legal education and long experience in the Indian service, is amply qualified to give an instructive address on the status of the red man under the federal laws.

In addition to the paper to be read by Mr. Lonergan, it is planned to discuss certain recent decisions of the district court. As the meeting will probably be the last until September, important matters will be brought before the association.

The bridge over the Jemez river at San Isidro has been completed, eliminating one of the bad crossings on the road from Albuquerque and Berna-llito to Jemez Springs. That the bridge had been completed was learned yesterday from Roman Gallegos of San Isidro, who was in Albuquerque. The commissioners of Sandoval county accepted the bridge last Saturday.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS

FUNERAL OF PORTER SCOTT.
The body of Porter Scott will be in state from 9 o'clock this morning until 4 o'clock this afternoon at C. T.
French's chapel. The body will be shipped tomorrow, accompanied by the widow and children. Burial will be at Clarksville, W. Va.

FUNERAL OF DR. OSUNA.
Funeral services for Dr. E. Osuna will be held at 9 o'clock this morning at the Church of the Immaculate Conception. Father A. M. Mandarach, S. J., officiating. B. Ruape, Nestor Montoya, Ofimiano Gutierrez, Eduardo Blasen, E. E. Seville and Elfrido Baca will be pallbearers. Burial will be in Santa Barbara cemetery.

WILLIAM ROGERS.
J. Abercrombie yesterday received a telegram from Jemez Springs, announcing the fact that William Rogers died at the springs in the morning.
Mr. Rogers was past 70 years old and an old-timer of the Jemez National and Cochiti country.
During the boom days of the Cochiti mining district he conducted a hotel at Bland, and when the camp commenced declining and only a few miners and prospectors were left in the district, Mr. Rogers left Bland and thereafter commenced farming on the Coloma, above Jemez Springs. Several years ago he conducted the Stone hotel at the springs.
Mrs. Rogers, his wife, died a few years ago and was buried at the springs, and it is quite likely that Mr. Rogers will be buried also at the springs.

TOMORROW MORNING

President asked to pay visit to
New Mexico Fair

W. P. Southard, President of Commission, Wires Invitations to Woodrow Wilson and Also A. A. Jones.

President Wilson, whose intention of attending the dedication of the Elephant Butte dam has been announced, yesterday was invited by telegraph by W. P. Southard, president of the New Mexico fair commission, to visit the state fair. Mr.
Southard asked the president so to do because of the time when the fair is open.

Governor McDonald is at his ranch
in Carrizozo and has received no fur-
torney E. C. Wade, Jr., who was to Washington to have the department
of state take up the matter, has returned to El Paso and reports that he had an interview with Assistant Secretary of State Osborne and has
of state and President Wilson will go into the matter thoroughly.

At the same time, Mr. Southard sent a telegram to A. A. Jones, as-istant secretary of the interior department, asking him to extend a personal invitation to President Wilson and inviting him also to come to the fair. It was Mr. Jones who made the announcement of the president's plan to visit New Mexico.

The message to the president follows:

"The President of the United States White House, Washington, D. C.
Understanding that you will visit New Mexico upon the occasion of the dedication of the Elephant Butte irrigation project, the New Mexico state fair commission cordially invites you so to time your visit as to attend the thirty-sixth New Mexico state fair and to meet the people of New Mexico who will be assembled here. The dates of the fair are September 25 to 30, inclusive, and we will be honored to have the privilege of arranging for your reception upon any one of these days."

"NEW MEXICO STATE FAIR COM-MISSION."

"By W. P. SOUTHARD, President."
Asked to See President.
The telegram to Mr. Jones follows:

"Hon. A. A. Jones,
Assistant Secretary of the Interior,
Washington, D. C."

The following telegram was sent to the president. Will you, in our behalf, see the president and extend this as a personal invitation?"

"Understanding that you will visit
New Mexico upon the occasion of the
dedication of the Elephant Butte irrigation project, the New Mexico
attend the thirty-sixth New Mexico

tember 25 to 30, inclusive, and we
any one of these days."

"We would like you to consider this also as a special invitation to yourself to visit our fair at the same time."

MISSION."

"By W. P. SOUTHARD, President."
